

The Little Theatre of Jefferson City is a non-profit, volunteer-based organization that depends upon local businesses and patrons like you to continue its mission...to encourage education and development of artistic talent and offer creative opportunities for all artists by presenting quality theatrical productions and promoting community participation, interest, and support for the performing arts. Becoming a sponsor is an easy and cost-effective way to brand your business as a supporter of the community and the arts throughout the year. TLT membership includes our four-show season, reaching thousands of local residents in your target market. Your member benefits extend through the entire season:

OKLAHOMA! Aug. 26-28, 2010
Music by Richard Rodgers & Oscar Hammerstein II. Directed by Curtis Sudduth. Set in a Western Indian territory just after the turn of the century, the high-spirited rivalry between the local farmers and cowboys provides the colorful background against which Curly, a handsome cowboy, and Laurey, a winsome farm girl, play out their love story. Although the road to true love never runs smooth, with these two head-strong romantics holding the reins, love's journey is as bumpy as a surrey ride down a country road. That they will succeed in making a new life together we have no doubt, and that this new life will begin in a brand new state provides the ultimate climax to the triumphant Oklahoma!

The Diary of Anne Frank Oct. 14-16, 2010
Written by Frances Goodrich & Albert Hackett. Adapted by Wendy Kesselman. Directed by Cindy Jobe. In this powerful new adaptation, Anne Frank emerges from history a living, lyrical, intensely gifted young girl, who confronts her rapidly changing life and the increasing horror of her time with astonishing honesty, wit and determination. Newly discovered writings from The Diary, as well as survivor accounts, are interwoven to create an impassioned story of the lives of people persecuted under Nazi rule.

The Lion in Winter April 14-16, 2011
Written by James Goldman. Directed by Rebecca Seabaugh. King Henry II of England has three sons by Eleanor of Aquitaine: Richard, Geoffrey, and John. He wants the kingdom to stay united after his death, but all three sons want to rule, and England is likely to be torn apart by revolution. Henry favors the youngest, John, while Eleanor favors the eldest, Richard. Middle son, Geoffrey, hopes to play both ends against each other and come out on top. Uneasy is the head on which the crown lies.

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels June 16-18, 2011
Book by Jeffrey Lane. Music & Lyrics by David Yazbek. Directed by Gara Loskill. Don't miss this hilarious Broadway musical, based on the film by the same name, in which two fraudsters, Lawrence Jameson and Freddy Benson, are living in a town not quite big enough for their scheming ways. They decide to set up a challenge, and agree that the first person to steal $50,000 from Christine Colgate will get to stay in town.
